1. The Entrance test will be held at the following Centres: Azamgarh, Aligarh, Delhi, Hyderabad, Kolkata, Lucknow, Mumbai, Patna and Srinagar.
2. The written examination will consist of a General Studies section [objective types only] following the UPSC pattern. It will be available in English and Hindi only. Additionally, Essay writing section will offer the choice of English, Hindi, or Urdu. This test aims to evaluate candidates' proficiency in general awareness, critical thinking, logical reasoning, comprehension, and written communication skills. The total duration of the exam will be three hours, with two hours allocated for General Studies and one hour for Essay Writing.
3. The entrance test paper would be divided into two papers: Paper-01 and Paper-02.
4. Paper 01 would consist of objective-type questions. There would be 100 questions, and the total marks for this section would be 100 (100 x 1 = 100). This paper will also include CSAT questions. The students may take the question paper with them. There will be negative markings (One-Third) as per the UPSC norm.
5. Paper - 02 would consist of Essay writing, for which the total allotted marks would be 60. The Candidate must write one essay (60 x 1 = 60). The total time allotted for both papers would be three (03) hours. However, the OMR sheet would be collected after two hours. The time allotted for writing the essay will be one (01) hour.
6. Based on the merit obtained from Paper 1 (MCQ test marks), the essays of only the top 200-300 students will be evaluated (subject to change).
7. The total interview/personality test marks will be 40. The interview will be held in online mode only.
8. Final Merit list will comprises of 200 Marks (100+60+40 Marks)

9. In case of a tie, the higher marks in the interview and Essay would be taken as the basis of selection. The younger candidate (age-wise) will get the seat if there is still a tie.
10. 5% of the seats will be reserved for candidates with Benchmark disabilities.
